~Rodeo Champions~

The Scribner Family competed in the national Working Ranch Cowboys Association (WRCA) tournament in Amarillo, Texas on November 11-14 and placed first. They each won a large amount of money, new boots, a saddle, ropes, buckles and other cool stuff! They now hold the title of the fifteenth World Championship Ranch Rodeo.

Mr. Scribner had this to say when he was interviewed:

“How does it feel to be champions?” “Great! It’s a great feeling to accomplish a goal we’ve worked on for years.”

“What did you do to succeed?” “Stay fast and consistent, and to Rodeo almost mistake free.”

“How long did you practice?” “Since able to contribute.”

“What did you receive for being victorious?” “A feeling of satisfaction, cash prizes, horse trailer, custom built saddle, hats, ropes, buckles, boots, and other cool things!”
