SADD

SADD has not yet had a meeting, but when they do the president Talon Griggs will speak to the high school and middle school kids. SADD is about people trying to make good decisions, and doing something better with their lives. Officer Jackson helps the members of SADD and other students make good choices by talking about alcohol and drugs and what harm can come from them. There are approximately 30 members in this organization, and they could use many more. If you have any questions or comments please see Talon Griggs or Josh Muckenthaler.

Ecology Club

The Ecology club has met twice during seminar so far this year. They have begun organizing the structure of the club and upcoming activities. They have met on three separate Fridays. They hung six bird houses in the trees north of the elementary school, and they collected trash on Bluestem Road from Highway 400 to 90th street. They will help with the community service clean up day on November 12. Students have accumulated up to five hours of community service so far this year. They will also attend several field trips this year including: Great Plains Nature Center, Tanganyika wildlife Park, etc... They will also adopt a trail at El Dorado Lake, and perform all of the school's recycling activities.
